NDC Launches New Website

Nashville, TN - January, 2006 – National Distribution & Contracting, Inc. (NDC) is pleased to announce the launch of their new corporate web site – www.ndc-inc.com. NDC has created a resource that will educate the public and further assist its member distributors and vendor partners.

Visit NDC's new and improved website to search for distributors, view current news stories, and download information and graphics about upcoming meetings and conferences. At a glimpse, site visitors will learn more about NDC, the various departments and employees that drive the organization, and information about becoming a partner. Along with a search functions, this website also boasts industry information and healthcare links.

"The dedication to service and information is a key element of the NDC mission and our new corporate website is no exception," commented Mark Seitz, president and CEO of National Distribution & Contracting, Inc. Existing NDC distributors and vendors are able to login through an advanced security feature to review contract information, pricing and special offers online. "We will continue in 2006 to add new programs and features to better serve all of our partners," added Seitz.
